MEDIA RELEASE

Issued on 19 January 2011

Breakfast Creek Hotel re-opens tomorrow and will donate all its sales on Australia Day to the Premiers Disaster Relief Appeal

The iconic Breakfast Creek Hotel has survived its third major flood. The current flooding did not reach the levels marked on the wall from the 1974 flood or the 1893 level.

Sam Gullo, Hotel Manager said that the clean up at the hotel is finished and once again our famous steaks and "beer off the wood" are available.

The Breakfast Creek Hotel will donate all its sales on Australia Day (Wednesday 26 January 2011) to the Premiers Disaster Relief Appeal.

The hotel will also be selling special Queensland flood appeal t-shirts with slogans such as "no water in our beer" for $20 each with all proceeds also going to the Premiers Disaster Relief Appeal.

The Breakfast Creek Hotel is part of the ALH Group. ALH has already made a $250,000 donation to the Queensland Premier's Flood Appeal, and are collecting donations at all our Queensland Hotels to assist people who have been impacted by the flood.
